LMHPCO Celebrates Hospice Awareness and Public Engagement

RESOURCE DIRECTORY

LMHPCO, a nonprofit, 501(c)3 educational corporation, is committed to research, professional continuing education and public awareness of hospice and end-of-life care throughout Louisiana and Mississippi. LMHPCO currently networks over 150 independent hospice agencies and end-of-life care partners interested in improving the quality of hospice and end-of-life care to terminally ill patients and their families throughout the two-state area.

LMHPCO receives no governmental funding and relies solely upon the support and cooperation of members and benefactors to develop end-of-life care resources within both states.

next month: GRIEF AND BEREAVEMENT

The Louisiana-Mississippi Hospice and Palliative Care Organization is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization governed by a board of directors representing all member hospice programs. It is funded by membership dues, grants, tax-deductible donations and revenues generated by educational activities. LMHPCO exists to ensure the continued development of hospice and palliative care services in Louisiana and Mississippi. LMHPCO provides public awareness, education, research, and technical assistance regarding end-of-life care, as well as advocacy for terminally ill and bereaved persons, striving to continually improve the quality of end-of-life care in Louisiana and Mississippi.
