

Dear Prospective Exhibitor,

As you already know 2021 was quite a year; LMHPCO returned to a live conference at the Higgins Hotel in New Orleans - in the midst of this pandemic - and we were able to do so without becoming a super spreader event thanks to careful planning and the hard work of the entire hotel staff. We plan to repeat that success in 2022 by returning to the Higgins Hotel July 27-29, 2022.

We are learning every day in this pandemic new ways of caring for folks at the end of life, especially with issues related to emergency preparedness, mask and vaccine mandates, racial inequities and health disparities, telehealth visits, trauma informed care, opioids and pediatric concurrent care. Our annual conference will again bring together providers and educators from across Mississippi and Louisiana especially as boosters, rapid testing kits and medications become part of our “new normal” in order to continue learning and better address care continuum issues along with standards and practice in this part of the country.

We hope you will consider joining us this summer in New Orleans to kickoff not only our 21st year of service to hospice and palliative professionals while enjoying the vibe and culture of New Orleans. Despite COVID waves and possible indoor masks mandates the food is always incredible and the hospitality memorable. We plan to again be health wise at the Higgins Hotel in 2022 and invite you to be part of our continuing efforts to improve our attendees skills in delivering palliative care and hospice services.

Our 2022 conference will bring together decision makers and influencers in palliative care and hospice who will once again take over the entire hotel to network in search of new ideas, services and products. The LMHPCO Conference gives your organization the visibility and exposure you’ve come to expect from our annual conference. This year’s theme, “Transcending Chaos & Healthcare: Recovery, Restoration and Renewal” has become our rallying cry in 2022 as providers figure out new ways to reintroduce quality care; our theme will also help us address critical core competencies in “this brave new world” of ours.

Enclosed you will find both the exhibitor registration form along with additional information outlining our multiple sponsorship options during this year’s conference.

Additional exposure is also available through sponsorship of the hotel room key cards, the conference wi-fi, introducing plenary and concurrent keynote speakers, sponsorship of breakfast, luncheon, reception and/or breaks over the three days of looking into the future. (Please note there is a tighter timeline on sponsorship of hotel key cards as this requires advance development.)

We look forward to communicating with you about exhibiting and sponsorship opportunities. If you have questions contact Jamey Boudreaux at (888) 546-1500, extension 7, or jboudreaux@LMHPCO.org.

Sincerely,

Jamey Boudreaux
Executive Director
